For the ~~country~~ country of our people.
 We are here to get a subject through.
 We can do as much for you and your people as we can for them. To them we are the same as we are to you. I am all yours and all yours of course matter should be made at present you want that philosophy in the past part to put this clear as the most part of our is that. the same it makes of you and ~~the~~ the ~~the~~ the of you of you and of you of you

Concerning the Shubun Lyceum *

* Now we're to men and women grow
A Lyceum to our to learn

X It isn't strange that some are proud Of the many talents they are endowed
We don't need of arbitrary rules
As if we still belong to schools
If all will join to make the fun
We get a substitute to cure

X The fore doubtless for the best
The modern Athens, that we love
We have our own debating club.

It isn't strange that some are proud
Of the many talents they are endowed
That our club has faults we know too true
and will try to place them plain in view Perhaps some eloquence is ours

In the own glory of our powers.

~~But~~ The may ~~be~~ they all true.

Who are bound to get a subject through.

And our Japan blood before and power
But who wants to hear us all the time?

A Lyceum, not all further on all shores
Of various matters should be made.

X Bannity we want

That physically we be not gant

Our ~~Museum~~ <sup>Museum</sup> ~~man's~~ <sup>man's</sup> charming room
In which we live all year
That cheers even the arid air
It breathes a spirit whole divine.

* Consider we are in a streak of shade the progress we have made What we hoped 'd be easy work!
 A Sunday be it folks did not think!
 X It is not strange that some are proud of the many talents they are endowed with don't mind of arbitrary rules
 As if we still belong'd to schools
 If all will join to make the fun
 We get a substitute to amuse

X The fore doct'line for the hub the modern Athens, that we have
 We have our own debating club.
 It is not strange that some are proud of the many talents they are endowed
 That our club has faults we know too true
 and will try to place them plain in view
 Perhaps some egotism is ours
 In the our study of our powers.
~~The~~ The may ~~be~~ <sup>debating</sup> they all true.
 Who are bound to get a subject though.
 Can Japan bleed before and power
 but who wants to hear us all the time?

A by-curve, not all further nor all shade
 of various matters should be made X Harmony we want
 That physically we be not gant
 So with this club as the mind feeds

In this, as the throb the world wide, folks are seldom even satisfied.

In this too as in the world wide

When we go through the world wide Some folks are never satisfied.

Of Science I would speak
So even think it makes me weak
